

OLIVER DOUGLAS AGAIN WINS

TAKES FIRST CUP IN THE LAKEWOOD TOURNAMENT.

Defeated Fred Herreshoff in the final, as at the Spring Competition—Shanley, Jr., leader in handicap—St. Andrews Club to have Anniversary Dinner.

Play ended in the fact tournament of the Lakewood Country Club yesterday with the winners and losers happy which is the best proof of the successful and well-managed of the three day affair. The semi-final for the first sixteen cup Herreshoff won from Knapp and Douglas from Waterman. This made the final a repetition of the same round at the Lakewood spring tournament, and history also repeated itself in the result, but Douglas did not win so easily this time from Herreshoff. The double event for Findlay Douglas, amateur champion of 1898, recalled the early years of the Lakewood tournaments, when it was regarded with certainty that either he or Travis would win. When the amateur from St. Andrews, Scotland, held our championship Herreshoff was just 10 years old.

The first hole of their match was a remarkable one for Douglas Herreshoff was on the green, 200 yards, with two nice shots, but Douglas fouled his drive and second shot. Next with an indifferent third shot he was off the green to the right, and hitting out the one to a nice tee for Douglas. He had a Herreshoff took three shots and the hole cost him. This unexpected result did not rattle the youth, but it set Douglas off at his fastest pace. He won two of the next four holes, and with this to turn the spot was 2 up. Douglas did not win another hole, but Herreshoff, on the other hand, was better than Douglas, the home-ward journey being a battle of Titans until the sixteenth, which he won in 5. They halved the next two, Douglas leading by 1 up. Herreshoff was off on his own, and to really use every club on his last except the driver. 1 3 4 5 6 4-39 Douglas 2 3 4 5 6 4-39 Herreshoff 3 4 5 6 7 8 5-47-78

Chapin, who won the half mile in 2 minutes 13 seconds, the previous record being 2 minutes 15 seconds. The field events were long drawn out, owing to the excellent handicaps, which made most of the competitors more evenly matched.

MORE HONORS FOR SHEPPARD

OLYMPIC VICTOR BEATS BACON IN SHORT RACE.

Mile Runner Tries His Speed at 440 Yards in Thirtieth Regiment Games.
Twenty-second Regiment Games—Point Honors for Fifth Company.

The Thirtieth Coast Artillery Corps held its thirty-first indoor games at the armory, Summer and Jefferson avenues, Brooklyn, last night before a big crowd of spectators. One of the star features was a special match race of 440 yards between M. W. Sheppard of the Twenty-second Regiment and C. J. Bacon of the Twenty-third Regiment. When the gun cracked Bacon was quickest away and held the lead over Sheppard by two yards to the 300 yard mark. Then Sheppard sprang, and going by Bacon in a few strides he led to the finish, winning by five feet.

The mile relay between the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Regiments was highly exciting, as both had plenty of partisans. Only once did the Twenty-third look dangerous, and that was when Sedley passed Gleason on the third relay; but the Twenty-second team came with a rush and opened up the 440 yard race, which had been a 2 up to the 200 yards, to 100 yards, and by this distance the New York regiment won.

In the heats of the 100 yards, which were run diagonally across the floor, there were some close finishes and plenty of fun for those who saw them. The first heat was won by E. A. Young of the Tenth Company, with 8 1/2 yards, won the first heat, and the second heat was won by J. M. Ross of the First Company, who had an allowance of 3 yards. The fastest heat was the 100 yards, which was won by A. V. Hooney of the Ninth Company, who had a handicap of 3 yards. C. Mills of the Fifth Company won with a lot to spare, and he also won his heat of the semi-finals. The Twenty-second Regiment won the final, which was a good contest, but Mills won by about a yard from Caro, with Ross a very close second.

A field of thirteen starters turned out for the half mile and strung out on different marks up to 30 yards. E. A. Young of the Eighth Company, who had a handicap of 3 yards, gave away after a lap to M. F. Becker of the First Company, who had a handicap of 3 yards. The race was a very close one, and it was a very good one. The winner, E. A. Young, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world.

The water polo contest was won by Townsend Harris by a score of 2 to 0. The winner, Townsend Harris, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world. The game was a very close one, and it was a very good one. The winner, Townsend Harris, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world.

NEWS OF THE ATHLETES.

Crown Prince of Greece to Host Olympic Meet at Athens in 1910.

His Royal Highness Prince Constantine of Greece will be chief director of the Olympic games to be held at Athens in 1910, and it is he who will settle all international disputes as to rules and so forth. Very likely there will have to be a definite understanding about some knotty points before America will go to the trouble of sending a team; and the feeling is now that America should have a voice in the drawing of the rules of the game, and in the selection of the site of the games. At the last A. U. convention an international committee was formed, and it will be its business to suggest some reformatory items to Prince Constantine. Americans are the only pole vaulters who seem to want a hole in their pole in vaulting. Perhaps both Dray and Gilbert, the foremost vaulters in the world, could do just as good without the hole as they practised that way. At London last July, and with only a few days practice without the hole, Gilbert and Cook cleared 12 feet 2 inches, and the former admitted afterward that after all the hole was of no great account and he thought with enough time to change his style he could do just as well without it.

Another memento of the cruce days is the toe board in shot putting, which is surely a mechanical aid to the performer. Putting the weight without follow was invented by a man's activity and muscular equilibrium, and in the space allowed for preliminary movements there was supposed to be nothing which would aid him in the effort to keep from toppling over. Even at the present day some strong men gain a couple of feet by lunging forward and blurring themselves against the toe board, whereas if it were not there they would topple head over heels and lose the trial. On the other hand, it is a very good thing at the game get little or no advantage from the board. For instance, Rose could do that with a 16 pound shot, and he could do it at a game of 16 pounds 50 feet 2 inches without it. The toe board is that is the best of his best put here during the whole year.

M. W. Sheppard of the Irish American A. A. A. has been named as a member of the committee of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. of course it is hardly probable that Sheppard will be a member of the committee, but he is a very good player, and he is well known in the golfing world. The committee is a very good one, and it is a very good one. The winner, Townsend Harris, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world.

The chief recommendation of the plan is that it takes the form of play, the Amateur Athletic Union, and it is a very good one. The plan is a very good one, and it is a very good one. The winner, Townsend Harris, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world.

SHOOTER GRINNELL FOR TWO EVENTS.

NEW YORK A. C. MAN WINS

Breaks 144 Out of 150 Targets and is Strongly Fancied for Amateur Championship—Schauffler wins November Cup—Results of Crescent Contests.
The best individual work of the New York A. C. shooter at Travers Island yesterday was by O. C. Grinnell, and after the day's tally was over he was strongly fancied for the amateur championship to be held on December 17 and 18. Out of the six events Grinnell won two, and on both occasions made straight scores of 25 from the scratch mark. In all 150 targets were trapped, and out of this total Grinnell broke 144, and this perhaps would be improved, for in one of the events he broke 144 out of 150, and he did not shoot the full 25.

F. H. Schauffler secured the leg on the November Cup, also as it was made second on the leg on the November Cup. The leg on the November Cup was a very good one, and it was a very good one. The winner, Townsend Harris, was a very good player, and he was well known in the golfing world.
